SOME OF OUR CLIENT PROJECTS

Mole Valley Arts Alive Festival 2019

For the second year running, we designed and printed 20,000 copies of the annual Mole Valley Arts Alive Festival programme on behalf of the Festival committee.

Abasubong "The Boy With No Running Shoes"

We published a book written by David Udo called "The Boy With No Running Shoes". David plans to send copies of his new book to schools in Nigeria where it will be used to teach the children English

Guildford Fringe Festival 2019

We arranged for the printing of 30,000 copies of the Guildford Fringe Festival brochure using our contacts in the print industry to secure the best price

Guild Foods, Guildford

We designed posters for a new retail outlet in Guildford, tied in with an advertising campaign in VantagePoint magazine

Heritage Open Days in Godalming 2019

We arranged the design and printing of 2,000 copies of the Heritage Open Days in Godalming brochure for The Godalming Trust and Godalming Town Council

"We got some lovely comments about the design of the Heritage Open Days programme this year, so thank you again."

Pam Talbot - The Godalming Trust

"Guild Foods markets already advertise with VantagePoint and their design team were able to turn around a poster for Black Friday for us to display on our forecourt. Excellent service, speedy turnaround and cost effective. I would definitely use them again for any other ad hoc requirements."
Gary Kemp - Guild Foods

"We've had some really good feedback about the programme this year, thanks so much for producing such a great product, I am really glad we have you on our team."
Claudia Cartwright - Mole Valley District Council
